

Kindness Mad-libs

Language Lizard - Living in Harmony Series

To review:

Noun: person, place, or thing

Adjective: descriptive word

Verb: action word

Adverb: describes a verb (usually ends in -ly)

It was a/an _____(adjective) day in _____(location), and Fred was super excited to go to see his friends! Fred _____(verb) outside and looked at all the _____(adjective) _____(plural noun) before he set out to start the day. While he was waking to _____(location), Fred saw an _____(adjective) man struggling to carry his _____(plural noun) to his _____(adjective) car. Deciding to be kind, Fred _____(past tense verb) over to the man and offered help! The man was very _____(adjective) to receive help, which made Fred _____(verb).

Next, Fred continued _____(verb) down the street, until he thought he heard the sound of _____(plural noun)! He realized it was actually a/an _____(animal) that was lost. The name tag on the _____(same animal) said _____(name) and had an address from down the street, so Fred kindly _____(verb) to the house and returned the _____(same animal) to its owner.

After that, Fred finally got to _____(location) and saw his friend _____(name), who had a/an _____(adjective) gift for Fred! How kind! Fred opened the gift _____(adverb), and found a _____(noun). This made him smile and _____(verb).

Fred and _____(same name) went to go eat _____(food). While _____(verb) in line, they saw that the _____(adjective) woman in front of them didn't have enough _____(noun) to pay. Fred decided to be kind, and gave her the _____(noun) she needed. She smiled and was so _____(adjective) that she invited Fred and _____(name) to sit with her and eat. They had so much fun!

Fred had a _____(adjective) day being kind!

